

Social Impact Capability Social Housing

Every CME Construction Product Delivers Sustainable Social & Environmental Impact!

Together, WE CAN Help to build houses that also CHANGE lives, REDUCE our environmental footprint,
Create Shared Value & support Circular Economy outcomes

Affordable Housing Products

A trusted & cost-effective supplier to the housing industry for 50 years and building products for Australian conditions

CME is an ISO-9001 accredited manufacturer

1. Shower bases
2. Shower Niche
3. Roof tiles
4. Temporary & permanent ramps & tactiles
5. Glass & Acrylic splashbacks – shower, laundry

Victorian Industry Participation Policy

Victorian Owned and products are locally Manufactured

Major Projects Skills Guarantee (MPSG)

CME supports diversity, capability, inclusion & equity within our workplace and contributes to your projects MPSG targets. Our workforce proudly includes 30% women and employs people with disabilities or those facing systemic social, cultural or financial disadvantage.

Sustainable Social Procurement (ISO20400)

CME s has adopted a Business-as-Usual social supply chain. Our creating shared value outcomes will help you to achieve your social procurement targets. We engage with social & disability enterprises & Aboriginal businesses, within our manufacturing, assembly, packing & installation. CME's manufacturing processes comply directly with 6

OCCE – A disability social enterprise engaged in our manufacturing supply chain

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Environment, Sustainability & Circular Economy Policies

CME is committed to support zero waste through our socially procured supply chain, in our recycling, reuse and waste to energy manufacturing processes. CME's circular economy use of calcium carbonate within our unique lightweight products and our end-of-life recycling, supports reduced carbon emissions and diversion from landfill.

Sustainability- 10+ year whole of life on rail products

For further information about our products or how CME can assist your project please contact
SocialCapability@composite.com.au